

Sunday Gospel Reflection

Fourth Sunday of Easter

1. Sign of the Cross

2. Gospel: John 10:1-10

“I came that they may have life.”

Jesus the Good Shepherd

10 “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. 2 The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. 5 They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” 6 Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

7 So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. 8 All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. 9 I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. 10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

3. Reflection: (reflect on your own or share together if with others)

1. In what ways in the past did you hear the voice of God calling to you?
2. What things can you do to assist you in hearing the voice of the Good Shepherd?
3. How do you experience fullness of life through your relationship with Jesus?

4. Share petitions that you would like to pray for: Finish with the Special Petition.

Special Petition: For vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

5. Lord's Prayer

6. Sign of the Cross.
